

CHESTERFIELD COUNTY ANNOUNCES
WINNERS OF INDUSTRIAL PRETREATMENT AWARDS FOR 2002

From left to right: Kevin Holloway, Virginia Water Systems, Inc.; Jerry Simicsak, Hill Phoenix; Yan Abkin, Carl Zeiss Optical, Inc.; Charles Wilusz, Kaiser Aluminum; Camille Decker, Bellwood Printing Plant; Jim Love, Wako Chemicals USA, Inc.; Adrienne Moore, Defense Supply Center Richmond; David Alwood, Wako Chemicals USA, Inc.; Steve Dugent, Defense Supply Center Richmond

The Chesterfield County Department of Utilities Pretreatment Program recently presented 14 awards to 12 local industries for their contributions to the environment this year.

For achieving exemplary compliance with all pretreatment requirements and for having received no violations or warnings during the year, the following industries were awarded the Gold Award:

Hill Phoenix
Bellwood Printing Plant
U.S. Filter, Inc.
Kaiser Aluminum
Wako Chemicals USA, Inc.

Carl Zeiss Optical, Inc.
Shoosmith Brothers Truck Wash
Defense Supply Center Richmond
Alstom Power, Inc.
Virginia Water Systems, Inc.

For achieving outstanding compliance with the pretreatment requirements and for having received only one warning during the year, the following industries were awarded the Silver Award:

United Parcel Service

Quantum Silicones

Defense Supply Center Richmond received the Most Improved Industry Award for significantly reducing their water usage, for reducing the levels of pollutants in their waste stream, and for their multiple recycling efforts. Alstom Power, Inc. received the Exemplary Pollution Prevention Award for their extensive recycling program and for maintaining their ISO14001 industry certification for three periodical audits.